

Homework Help Sessions

We want you to be academically successful! To provide additional opportunities for support, a number of teachers have made themselves available at specific times. The times listed in the table below can be used by all students. It is particularly helpful to find a session with a teacher that you have in your schedule. Making arrangements with your specific teacher to get targeted help with assignments, projects, or tests is encouraged.

We suggest that you ask your teachers if they have a specific time/day that they can meet to provide academic support. In other words, if you need help with assignments, are preparing for an upcoming test or need other academic assistance, one of the best things you can do is ask your teachers and make arrangements for getting help**
